

Preface

The collection includes materials of the International Online Conference “Sports Psychology in the intercultural Space”, which took place on December 4–5, 2020 at the Ural Federal University.

The purpose of the conference was to promote international cooperation of scientists in the field of sports psychology, build professional relationships between the Russian Association of Sports Psychologists and the International Society of Sport Psychology (ISSP), exchange scientific and practical experience in the field of sports psychology, discuss the prospects for the application of sports psychology’s research results to sports practice.

A round table was brought into the framework of the conference, in which participated the following organization members: the sports association of psychologists (Russia and CIS countries), International Society of Sport Psychology (ISSP), the European Federation of Sports Psychology (FEPSAC), the Spanish Federation of Sports Psychology (FEPD), the Mexican Association of Sports Psychology and Physical Activity (MASPPA). The report of the round table conference was presented in the collection of materials.

The collection contains articles written by leading scientists in the field of sports psychology, as well as young scientists and students in terms of four thematic directions of the conference: “Development of sports psychology in the intercultural aspect”, “Psychological support of athletes throughout their sports career”, “Positive international practices in the field of psychology sports” and “Psychological health and well-being of those who work for physical culture and sports”.
